

Algood Branch Library

Summer Reading

Program 2017

SRP Kick Off Lego Party

May 25, 3:00 - Snacks, Drinks, & Legos! Come sign up for the SRP and have some great fun with Legos! Duplo blocks will be available for the 5 and under crowd.

Illusionist Tim Sharp

Monday June 12. 3:00 - Magic, jokes, and fun for the entire family.

Mr. Rich's Super Science

June 14, 3:00 -Science experiments and educational fun. Mr. Rich teaches kids how to Build a Better World first hand. All Ages!

Guy Zimmerman, Tennessee Forester

June 27, 1:30 – Guy Zimmerman teaches the kids the importance of protecting our natural habitats, as well as identifying rees and other things of interest that can be found our new Rail Trail. Smokey the Bear might even be there! Ages 3+

Building a Better Community with The Cookeville/Putnam County Animal Shelter

June 21, 3:00 – Stories, crafts, and maybe even a furry friend or two. Find out why the animal shelter is an important part of our community. All Ages!

Ultimate Lego Build

June 29, 3:30 – You think Lego Club is fun the rest of the year? See what great surprises the Library has in store at the Ultimate Lego Build! Duplo blocks will be available for the 5 and under crowd!

Read-A-Thon

July 10, All Day - Need some last minute Summer Reading hours or just want to relax all day reading? Come to the Read-A-Thon! All four branches will be taking part as we try to break last year's record!

Stories and Crafts every Monday at 1pm! All ages!

Donald the Goat – June 5th

Emma LaPrade, TTU Swing Club – June 12th

Elizabeth Allison, Putnam County Health Dept. – June 19th

Sheila Scruggs, Lite Rock 95.9 – June 26th

Snowbird, WSMV Nashville – July 3rd

